Since the Felsing-Weisgerber boat race on the 17th inst., the one great interesting topic in boating circles has been the race which took place on last Saturday between Ed. Claytor, of the C. P. Brown Boat Club, of this city, and Andrew Siebert, of the Clipper Boat Club, of Pittsburgh. The stakes, $250 a side, were large enough to attract attention even from non-sporting men, and the record of both contestants being good, both had many friends who were confident of the ability of each to beat the other.

It is proper to say, however, that Sheriff Curtis was very agreeably disappointed in the conduct of the men with whom he felt compelled to interfere, and informéd the reporter that although at the time he came on the ground and warned them to stop he had no help near, the parties at once compiled with his orders, the chuck-a-luck men packing their machinery and faking the first Pittsburgh train home. Two of his races were with Denmarsh, also of Pittsburgh. On the occasion of his last match with Denmarsh he ran into a barge, which possibly may have been the reason of his defeat. His third contest was with Powell, which resulted in Powell's favor. His reputation as an oarsman third.

PREVIOUS TO THE RACE. While there is no doubt Sheriff Curtis believed that not a drop of beer was being sold on the grounds, and that his posse, on this occasion, was an entirely useless appendago of his office, the aid of a microscope was not needed to discover the existence of a lively trade in the thirst quenching fluid denominated beer. The Sheriff himself witnessed the handling over one improvised bar, glass after glass of the fluid, but the men had informed him that they were giving the beer away, and said he "of course I have no right to interfere.

THE RECE.

Between five and six o'cleock, after everybody had apparently grown tired of waiting for something to be done which looked like making ready for the race, Mr. Walter Beaamont, the referee, called the judges together and choice of water was cossed for. Siebert won the toss and selected the Ohio side, the same as it will be recollected Felsing selected. Then another long season of inactivity succeeded, and it was nearly half-past six o'clock before the referee took his position. The signal was given and Claytor and Seibert quickly appeared from thefrrespective boat houses.

THE COURTS.—MUNICIPAL COURT—Judge PULLY POINTS.—The pulpit of the First English Evan. Lutheran Church, on 16th transacted in this court on Saturday Geo. R. Tingle, Administrator of the estate of Elijah Marling, sen., deceased, vs. John Robrecht; in chancery. Order en-tered noting the filing of the answer of John Robrecht.

Tolice Courr—Judge Cranmer.

This court was occupied Saturday in disposing of the following cases:
Joseph Doffett, arrested on the charge of vagrancy, guilty, fined $5.
Louis Keliner, arrested for disorderly conduct, guilty, fined $2.
John Dunn, arrested on a charge of drunkenness, guilty, fined $2. In default of payment of fines, all the above parties ware committed.

Among the Pittsburgh men present were Mayor Liddell, Alderman McKennan, Marker Rush, Messes, Kelly, Denmarsh and many other well known sporting men.

THE TWO MEN.

Claytor is well known here, and is a great favorite with his friends. Since his advent as an oarsman he has rowed two mees for money, both of which were with Barrett, of the Nail City Club. The first of these, for a purse of $100, distance three miles, he won in 24:30 by four boat lengths. There are many who think that but for an unforescen occurrence victory would have crowned his efforts in the second contest. On that occasion he was soized with cramps about half a mile from the stake boat and ceased rowing. Many fears of a statement of the section tweeter than the stake boat and ceased rowing. Many fears of a statement of the section tweeter expressed. convened his efforts in the second contest. On that occasion he was seized with charps about half a mile from the stake boat and ceased rowing. Many fears of a recurrence of the accident were expressed, but Claytor himself did not share the alarm of his anxious admirers, and in his own was said, "I think I will win."

His weight yesterday was 142 pounds. In years he is between 22 and 23, Andrew Seibert, Claytor's apponent, has been a member of the Clipper Club of Pittsburgh for several years. He is somewhat older than Claytor and rowed at five pounds less. The record shows him to have been engaged in three races, in one of which he was victor.

How to fushfate.—Dr. Chandler, of the New York Board of Health, gives the following as the best method to pursue in tunigation. It is reliable information on an interesting subject:

Place some sulphur in an iron vessel and pour a little alchohol on it. The alchohol is set on fire, and before it is burned away the sulphur will be ignited. There will arise from the burning sulphur sulphurous acid gas, which like other gas, will mix itself with all the air in the house without the aid of draft or currents. From Christian Union, August 22, 1878.

Even since Dr. Wm. M. Giles, of 451
Sixth avenue, extended a frank invitation to owners of lame horses to bring their equine properly round to his place of business for free treatment, the corner of Twenty-seventh street and Sixth, avenue has come to resemble a horse fair. The Doctor's bold deflonce, which if thus thrust upon the curious attention of his neighbors, is based on his earnest belief in his fodide dimmonia Liniment, which is now preferred to all others by the chief stock ratsers and sporting men of the country.

A valuable horse of the writer's was kicked on the hock. Swelling and lameness ensued, rendering the unimal nearly worthless. We were advised to try Gibes Liniment, and are gratified to say it acted like a charm. About two inches of bone came away, the sore healed up, and the lameness and swelling are fast disappearing.

When in the course of human events, you feel the pains of Rheumatism or Neuralgia coming, we would advise you not to wait until the disease becomes scated, and you suffer torfure for weeks and perhaps for months, but purchase a bottle of Lawson's Curative and use it faithfully, and our word for it you will bless as for our timely advice. It is the only remedy for these distressing complaints that can be truly called a panacea. It has been used many years, and we have yet to know a case, where it was thoroughy and fairly tried, that it did not effect a pernanent cure. For any Inflammation, Pains, Headache, Sora Throat, Nervoussess, etc., it is equally effications, and should be kept in every family.
